Young Soldier

Returns From the Philippines to Claim a Madison County Bride. Now Rich.

Twelve years ago J. W. Carr, a young man of Panola, this county, joined the army of Uncle Sam and went to the Philippines to aid in revolutionizing the new possessions of this country. After serving several years and making an enviable record as a soldier, he was honorably discharged and packed what little belongings he had to return to America and to the old Kentucky home.

A fair Kentucky girl was also awaiting him on this side of the waters. The love that was kindled before he left for the far east, was still ablaze, in fact it had been his guiding star through all the rough service he had endured while fighting for Uncle Sam in the islands. When taps sounded in the evening with its doleful music, his heart would yearn for his native land and the spot in Kentucky he held most dear. A few days before he was to return it suddenly dawned on him that great possibilities were in store for him in the islands, and a part of the rich mineral lands, then practically unexplored, might just as well belong to him as any one else. He determined to try out, and receiving the assurances from the fair one at home that she would wait, he much anxiety his return for her, whether rich or poor, he began what has proven to be a most successful venture.

In company with several others, he invested in mineral lands, which now demand over a million dollars, this price having been recently refused. Mr. Carr was one eighth interest.

Wednesday morning at the Glynndon hotel, Dr. Marshall, of the Baptist church officiating, Mr. Carr and his sweetheart of childhood days, Miss Nellie Lee Sharp, of this county, were united in marriage. After a honeymoon of several days spent with relatives in this state and Tennessee, the bride and groom will leave for the island to reside.

At present Mr. Carr is United States Marshal having been offered this position shortly after being discharged, on account of his record made in the ranks. They will reside at Manila. The bride is a daughter of D. F. Sharp, the well known merchant at Panola, and is quite handsome.

Close Call.

The quick work of Chief Daugherty and his fire fighting laddies prevented a serious fire at the county jail last Wednesday. Andrew Baxter, colored, who has been confined for the past month because the lunatic asylum at Lexington was too crowded to admit him, threw a fit, and declared he wanted to burn up the whole town. He got hold of some matches and set fire to his own and several other beds and for a while the flames looked as if they would do big damage. The prisoners were corralled by Jailer Jones and several deputies until the flames were extinguished and there were no escapes. The loss will amount to but little.

Watch It.

Cholera has Crept into the Hog Pens of Madison County Heavily.

That dreaded disease among hog raisers—cholera, has crept into the pens of nearly all the farmers of Madison county this winter, and in many cases owners were forced to ship their stock at once to prevent the entire loss. Madison is one of the biggest hog raisers of all the counties in the state, and for the past three or four years, the county has been practically free from this dread disease. According to the expert hog men of this county, it is brought here from the mountain counties by hogs that have been allowed to feed on acorns, and this they claim will produce cholera quicker than anything else, when the animals are brought to the Bluegrass and fed on corn.

Mr. Joe Biles, who is constantly studying the needs of the stockmen and farmers in his state as well as his native county, is enthusiastic over the discovery of the new serum, by which a drove of hogs can be made immune by the timely use of it. He investigated this new discovery at Lexington several days ago, when experts were making demonstrations with it. A hog can now be vaccinated against cholera just like human against small pox, and in a few years hog cholera will be practically stamped out of the country, and kept out by the use of this new discovery. The only thing now is to get this virus within the reach of the poor man's purse. Every grower in the county should investigate this great preventive at once.

The hog industry will bring thousands of dollars to Madison county growers within the next few years if the proper precaution is taken now. Information on this subject can be obtained by writing the Kentucky Experiment Station, Lexington.

At the Madison County Stock Yards last week 130 stock hogs shipped from Beattyville brought 8 cts. They were sold in bunches from twenty up.

To Danville.

Mr. O. H. Hendren, of Kirksville, has purchased a gens furnishing business in Danville with his brother-in-law, Mr. Parks of that city, and will take charge at once. They bought out Sallee & Crow. Mr. Hendren has been in St. Louis for sometime where he has connected with the Wm. Barr establishment and is a hustling young man.

The City Council and City Streets.

The Mayor and present city council have shown much interest and good judgment in the attention given the streets and side walks of the city since they began to direct the city's affairs, but there is one important thoroughfare which has been overlooked and sadly neglected. It is the South end of Second street from Main to the Campus. This is one of the most used streets in the city and yet practically impassable during much of the year. With about 800 students in the Normal School and many of them ladies and boarding in the city or rooming in the city and taking their meals at Sullivan Hall, as the dormitory can not accommodate but a small part of the present student body, it is necessary that they tramp through the mud from the corner of the campus to Water street twice or more times per day through rain or shine. This is totally unreasonable to expect, when we remember the value of the school and the student body to the material and educational interest of the city. Also all of the persons living on the Summit are constrained to go a long way around or to meet with a similar experience until they reach Water street. It seems only just that the 1000 or 1200 persons using this street constantly should be provided with a side walk. Certainly no important section of the city is so overlooked and if the Mayor or Councilmen will only try to get up this street just once after a rain or thaw and see what is endured the year round by the persons above mentioned, it will clear their mind of any doubt as to the imperative need and justice of taking immediate steps toward putting down this walk. By all means, let the Mayor and Council investigate this matter and render justice to whom justice is due by putting a substantial pavement on this important street at once.

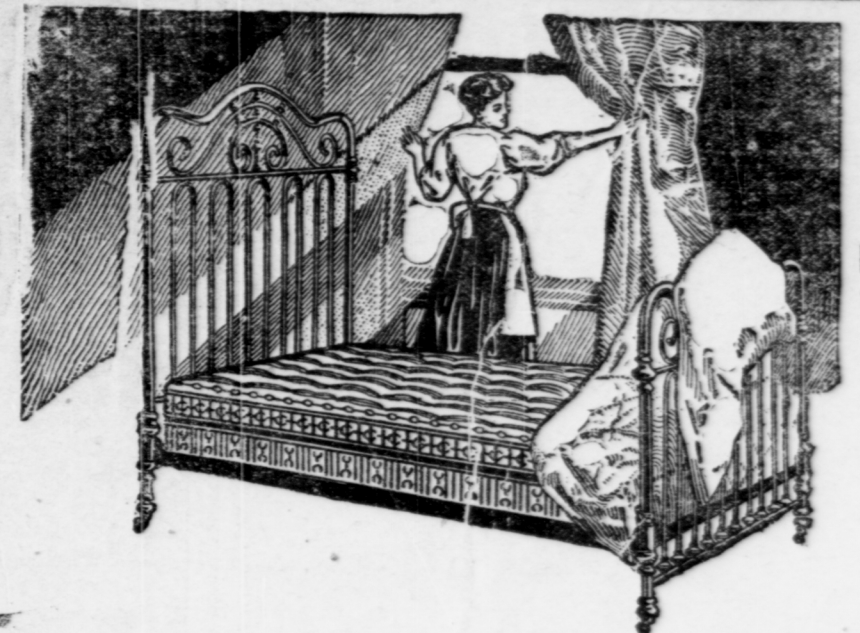

Campus Citizens.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. The Danville Advocate truthfully says that great inducements are now being offered by the land sharks out west but those with fever for emigration from God's country should read the letter from the editor of the Winchester News, in which he asserted that he could come back to old Kentucky and rent a farm and make more money than if he owned the finest one in the Sun-Down State. Goes away from home always have long hours, and everything that glitters is not gold, so you had better stay at home.

The Arkansas member has spoken thus in the House of Representatives: "If the members of Congress from Kentucky do not take action toward contesting the seat of Cabel Powers in the next Congress, I will myself introduce a resolution to have the matter taken up," said Representative Macon, of Arkansas. If the Republican members of this House could not sit with Mr. Roberts, of Utah, because he was accused of being a polygamist, the Democrats certainly cannot sit with a member who was convicted on the charge of murder and who is enjoying his liberty only by the favor of a partisan state executive."

GOVERNOR LANE is one of the chief pushers for the Sulloway Bill in Congress to saddle a heavier debt on the people of the United States for more pension money for those who fought with the Union in the civil war. We'll get his scalp next time. Floyd Boyd had too big a head to carry, but he made him hustle to win.

Judge McDowell, of Danville, is quoted in the daily papers as being for John Noland. "Everybody was for John Noland," Judge McDowell said. "I was for McDowell. That's his record. Too bad there is one man in the Eighth who will refuse to support the only man that the Democrats can elect Governor this year."

Are we going to let Nicholasville, Winchester, Mt. Sterling and even Stanford, get ahead of us with their commercial clubs? They are pushing things in these villages, why can't we?

OWN JUDGE BENTON is certainly landing down decisions in the Franklin circuit court, and there are some importance too. He's a product of old Madison.

SENATOR PENNER may talk all he wants to, but it is plain that Senator Lorimer got the seat in the senate by fraud and with coin of the realm.

A Lexington man has been convicted of running a "Bird Cage game." It is a skin game "Bird Cage game." It is a little sadder than anybody.

Had you noticed it? The days are getting a "Lettie" longer.

Mr. Taylor White and Miss Daisy Adams were married at high noon yesterday at the home of the bride on Lancaster Ave. Rev. Barnes of the Christian church officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Adams and is a young woman of many fine traits of character. Mr. White is a valued employee of the hardware firm of D. B. Shackelford & Co., and is a hustling young business man. They will spend their honeymoon in Louisville.

Mrs. D. H. Brock's tea on Saturday afternoon, given in honor of Mrs. W. G. Smith of Alaska, and Mrs. Paul Collins, of Bellingham, Wash., was one of the most enjoyable society events of the winter. The house was prettily decorated and the dining table, presided over by Mrs. Neale Bennett and Miss Marie Harber, with its exquisite clung cut piece, flowers, candelabras, cut glass, bon bons, etc., made a lovely picture.

Mrs. D. B. Shackelford entertained very delightfully with a luncheon-bridge Thursday noon in honor of Mrs. Paul Collins, of Bellingham, Washington, and Mrs. Kats Speed, of New York. The house was decorated in ferns and carnations and the hostess and guests of honor received in the drawing room. About twenty friends enjoyed Mrs. Shackelford's charming hospitality.

Mr. George Hume entertained a number of his friends last Tuesday evening at his country home at a birthday dinner. A sumptuous spread was laid before the guests and those who responded were: James Wagers, Irvin Hume, James Shackelford, Earl Curtis, Tom Moberly, "Uncle Mike" Miller, Jack Greenleaf, James Tribble, Phil Wilting, Tom Burnam, Charles Cullen, M. C. Kellogg and Ben Daugherty.

The many friends of Mr. Roscoe Reeves will be pleased to learn of his marriage to Miss Lucy Henry, which was solemnized several days ago at the home of the officiating minister Dr. C. F. Evans, in Lexington. Mr. Reeves is one of the youngest railroad engineers in the country and is a Richmond boy who has made good with the great L. & N. railway system. He has been making Versailles headquarters for some time and with his new bride will go to housekeeping in that city until the new road is completed between Versailles and Frankfort, when they will likely move to Richmond. Mrs. Reeves is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry, of Versailles.

Lancaster Record—Miss Mary Elmore, of the Richmond Normal school, is at home for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elmore. Miss Josephine Chenault, of Richmond, is here visiting her cousins, Misses Mary and Lydia Elmore. Miss Van Greenleaf, of Richmond, came Wednesday for a visit to her cousin, Miss Franky Kaufman. Miss Della Tindler, of the Richmond Normal school was with her parents, Elder and Mrs. F. M. Tindler Sunday.

The meeting of the "Mary Patti Oldham" Club with Miss Cary Rice on Friday last was a most enjoyable one. Italian Opera was the interesting subject discussed and Rosini was the special comedian. The following program was given after which delightful refreshments were served:

Roll Call—Names of Celebrated Opera Singers
Paper—Italian Opera
Song—Miss Bessie Turley
Song—How Can I Leave Thee
Paper—Mrs. I. G. Ballard
Paper—Norma Guinchigliani
Piano Solo—Waltz—Impromptu
Miss Fannie Wilgong
Overture—William Tell
Mrs. Robt. Boggs
Miss Milton
Mrs. W. G. White was given a talk Rosini as a man and Rosini as a musician and composer, but was unavailably absent.

Quite a pleasant shock was given to the friends of Mr. Nicholas Harber Tuesday, when it was learned that he was married to Miss Mattie Button at Hamilton, Ohio, on Dec. 5th. The young couple decided to keep it a secret until the first of February and they were indeed successful. The wedding will take place on Monday. The bride is a daughter of Prof. Button, of the Harrodsburg City Schools, and is a charming young woman. She attended school here last year where the courtship which terminated so romantically, was first begun. Mr. Harber is one of Richmond's rising young business men and has a wide circle of friends who wish him unbounded happiness in this venture.

Lexington Leader—Mrs. Kats Speed, of New York, was guest of honor yesterday at a pretty afternoon party given by her sister, Mrs. Harrison Simall, at her home on East Fourth street. It was a delightful gathering of sixteen friends and the afternoon was a very charming one. The lovely home was decorated with palms and ferns and pink and white flowers and after the game of bridge a delicious lunch of substantial and ices were served, and the prize was a stylish gift basket. The hours were very informal and those who enjoyed the hospitality were: Mrs. Emily Barnes, Mrs. Chas. Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Owens, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. James Combs, Mrs. Newton Combs, Mrs. B. Ford Graves, Mrs. Thomas Bradley, Mrs. Embury Allen, Miss Jay Dillinger, Mrs. John Simall, Mrs. Julian McClymonds, Mrs. Frank Bullock, Mrs. George Shanklin, Mrs. C. D. Chesnut, Miss Sarah Chenault and Miss Allie Loughridge.

Judge James Benton was the guest of honor at a banquet given in Frankfort last Thursday evening by members of the bar and other notable citizens of the commonwealth. The Frankfort News says in part: Judge Benton was particularly happy, in his excellent address on "The Circuit Judge In and Out of This Circuit." It was heartily applauded almost sentence by sentence. Judge Benton's modesty received many shocks, as for instance when Col. Scott declared him to be the greatest Circuit Judge he had ever known, and nominated him for the Court of Appeals and then for governor. Judge O'Rear, from his long experience on the appellate bench, made him a competent witness the best circuit judges in the state at this time when the circuit judges were never absent. The banquet closed shortly after midnight, and was pronounced one of the most enjoyable ever held at the capitol, but, as stated by Judge Barker, it was the first time one had ever been tendered in the city.

The Special Club met with Mrs. M. G. Kellogg Wednesday afternoon and the meeting was a most enjoyable one. The probability of having two well known artists to give a concert soon in Richmond under the auspices of the club created much interest and enthusiasm. The following program was given:

Roll Call—Some late Musical Event

Mrs. Middleton
Piano—Spring Song—Grieg
Marie Louise Kellogg
Piano—Melody in F—Rubenstein
Miss Julia White

More Reasons.

Is it the proper thing to do, to cut out the 1911 crop of tobacco, that is the question that is absorbing the minds of the growers in Madison as well as all over the Burley district. Mr. Green Clay, who is perhaps as well posted as any grower in the state, and who has written on this subject for the Climax, adds the following to his former questions:
"When the land owners of the Burley district of Kentucky decline to allow former tenants to grow a crop of tobacco in 1911 will they allow them to plow up their blue grass pastures for a bumper corn crop instead?
Will the land owner support his former tenants in idleness until the 1912 tobacco crop or must he live on hope for twelve months?
In case the tobacco grower by trade goes elsewhere for work this year will he return in 1913 or be replaced by others?
If no crop of tobacco this year means better prices next year why not "cut out" grass seed or corn or hogs for one year for the same purpose?
What are you going to do with your new barns and implements?"

Close Wednesday.

The special services at the Methodist church will close this evening. Evangelist Coman having an engagement to fill in another state. He is an earnest speaker and accomplished great good while in the city. The good wishes and prayers of his hearers go with him. Thru his efforts and those of the pastor, Rev. Crutchfield, the active Christians were made stronger in the faith, the "backsliders" were thoroughly aroused and the inactive ones were made to feel the strong hand of God calling. One of the strongest appeals to the worldly element was made Sunday evening, when the evangelist delivered a wonderful sermon on "Repentance" taking for his text the 9th verse of 10th chapter of Romans. All who have attended have been repaid by services of deep spiritual power, sermons of convincing logic. The speaker possesses an unshaken fidelity to the immortal interests of men and shows it in his sermons with great sincerity. Miss Harberson's singing was a feature of the services. Her sweet voice with a richness of tone that is wonderful, holds her listeners in a spell of thought. Her interpretation of sacred songs is perfect. She has been assisted in several of the services by Mr. Cecil Traynor, who has a baritone voice of great fullness.

"The Thief"

No play of recent times has achieved the fame of "The Thief" that stirring drama of love and jealousy, of a wife's caprice and a husband's condemnation, which comes to the local opera house for an engagement of one night, Monday, Feb. 6th. "The Thief" created a furore in Paris and was greeted by the press and public of this country upon its production at the Lyceum Theatre as the greatest sensation of the theatre ever offered. It has established a new record, for no one will wish to miss witnessing a performance of it at a price within the reach of all theatre goers. A married woman, on a small income, endeavors to dress on a par with the leaders of society, for the one purpose of holding the love of her husband, who often expresses his admiration of the appearance of her more wealthy friends. She does so by stealing a large sum of money and is found out. Her confession to her husband and his criticism of her sin, comprises a scene the like of which has never before been presented in the theatre. No one should let "The Thief" go by without enjoying its wonderful story by a personal visit to the theatre next Monday evening, Feb. 6th. Prices 50-75-100.

One Big Fool

But He Doesn't Live in Richmond Nor Read the Climax.

A man in Connecticut gave a doctor, a specialist in catarrh, $50. to cure him of this common yet most obnoxious disease. The specialist gave him a bottle of medicine and told him to use it.

The fool took the medicine home, took one dose, put it on a shelf and made no further effort to follow instructions.

Three months later with the medicine still on the shelf he told a friend that the specialist was a fake; that he had paid him $50 and still had catarrh.

Hyomei won't cure catarrh if you don't breathe it; it will if you breathe it regularly.

Furthermore, you don't need to give a catarrh specialist $50 to cure you of catarrh, for the specialist is yet to be born who can write a better prescription than HYOMEI.

B. L. Middleton and druggists everywhere guarantee Hyomei to cure catarrh or money back. A complete outfit which consists of a bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber inhaler and simple instructions for use costs only $1.00. Separate bottles of Hyomei if afterwards needed costs but 50c.

Known Here.

Prof. Ed C. Fox who committed suicide at his home in Clarke county last Tuesday was well known here, but was not related to any of the Madison county people by that name. He was an uncle of John Fox, Jr., the noted author.

Notice

I will stand my Silver Creek Red Bear hog, at my home on Big Hill avenue at $100. Money due when service is rendered. I have for sale some nice shoats large enough for service.

New Agent.

Mr. Willis Moore, of the Climax force is the new agent here for the Louisville Times. On account of his hustling ability he was selected from a long list of applicants by that paper to look after its interests here. Call him at 609.

A Sick Man.

"Uncle" Harry Schroeder, the genial dutchman and renowned baker, is a sick man and on account of being unable to work he has asked the County Judge for a permit to go to the County Infirmary for a few months. This will be regretted by his many friends with regret but they hope for his speedy recovery.

New Business.

J. B. Walker, who recently retired from the Lumberjacks business, has taken a position with the Richmond Tobacco Warehouse and his presence will no doubt add greatly to the prestige of this concern. He is an expert on the wood and enjoys a wide acquaintance in the southern section of the county.

Will He?

Will the ground hog see his shadow tomorrow? That is the question that is agitating the minds of the people all over the county. According to the weather prophets, the 2nd is to be a cold and squally day, and if this is the case the backbone of winter is broken and old Boreas will cease his high antics. Although the ground hog legend is said to be hundreds of years old, and is fast losing its prestige with the people, yet there are some who firmly believe in its teachings from year to year.

He Gets 'Em.

Lindsay Blanton, the coal dealer, should be recognized by the Carnegie Hero Commission. Although he has never saved a human life, he has prevented several runaway fires of late. This month he has stopped three from serious injury, if not death, to themselves as well as other property. He seems to be always near when a frightened horse starts to make a dash. Several days ago he stopped a team of great risk to himself and Wednesday he stopped a horse that was running frantically thru the crowded streets.

Estill Timber.

The Frankfort News says: A fleet of eighteen rafts of fine white oak timber arrived from Millers Creek, Estill county, yesterday for the Everole Lumber Company, under convey of the gasoline tug Basil. The Everole mill, which shut down in November, will open up for the season on Wednesday, and as this enterprising concern works from twenty-five to thirty men at fair wages, it is no small item in the industrial features of the city. The logs brought down yesterday are the first to arrive from the upper stream since last summer, and another fleet being towed by the Belle, is expected here within a few days, consigned to the same firm.

Bids For Pike Work.

Notice is hereby given that W. B. Shackelford, County Judge, as directed by the Fiscal Court, will receive at his office up to and including February 6th, at 5 p. m., sealed written proposals or appraised stone, slate and gravel of approved quality and size to be spread upon the various sections of turnpikes in Madison county, with sufficient dirt to hold same in place, for the year 1911 bids to be made by the road spread on pike at times and places to be designated by Road Supervisor. Amount not to exceed appropriation hereafter to be made. Also ditching by the road.

Contracts to be made with successful bidders with approved security. Contractors to be let by lowest and best bid.

The County reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Messrs. Edward Stockton and Nicholas Harner went to Waco Saturday afternoon where they assisted the Masonic lodge at that place in conferring the Entered Apprentice Degree on several candidates.

Resigns Position.

Dr. Howard Cook has resigned his position at the Perry drug store, but has not yet decided just where he will locate. Dr. Cook is a capable pharmacist and has made many friends during his short stay in Richmond who will regret exceedingly his leaving.

More Money.

Rural Carriers out of the Richmond postoffice are rejoicing over a raise in salary, which has just been made by Congress. It will give them $1,000, an increase of $100 on the years work. Carriers here are Steve Haynes, No. 1; Robert Harst, No. 2; James White, No. 3 and L. C. Moore, No. 4.

If you have not sold your tobacco, take it to the Madison Warehouse where the top prices prevail. There's a reason, if Judge Gets It.

Judge James Benton gets the distinction of being the first Judge to sentence a prisoner to be electrocuted in Kentucky. It is Charles Howard, who was convicted of murder in the Franklin circuit court last week. Howard has been taken to the Edinburg branch of the state penitentiary where all electrocutions will take place.

Wonderful.

Messrs. H. Jett, John Stone and Ed Warford, who went to Louisville last week to witness the big Old Fellow initiation at the armory, say it was the grandest spectacle they ever beheld. They say with a little training the local degree team could equal the team of Merrick Lodge, which conferred the degrees at Louisville. Madison county has some of the brightest Odd Fellows in the state.

Crowded.

The Eastern Kentucky State Normal is certainly crowded with pupils. Sixty-eight counties are represented and Sullivan Hall and Memorial Halls are taxed to their capacity to accommodate the students. Between one and two hundred students are boarding in the city. At this time of the year, the country schools are out and prospective teachers come now and remain until the term closes in July so as to be ready for the schools which generally begin in August.

To The Country.

Mr. A. D. Miller and family are moving this week to the Scanlan farm on the Lexington pike and he will become a real farmer in connection with his duties at the Climax office. Mr. Miller has leased a tract of one hundred acres adjoining the home and will try his hand at raising fine hogs and chickens. He will be assisted by Mr. Charles Miller, formerly with the firm of Arnold, Hamilton & Laxon. The remaining portion of the Scanlan farm has been leased by Mr. Wm. Asher.

Elks Busy.

Next Friday evening will be a gala one for the Richmond Elks for a rich number of a dozen young candidates who have never been thru the mysteries of a secret order, will be shown thru the degree of Elksdom. The evening will close with a big banquet in honor of the new members. Several out-of-town Elks are expected and the newly organized choir is preparing for a rich musical program. Exalted Ruler, R. B. Terrell and Secretary Parks, are hoping to make this one of the "biggest nights in the history of the local lodge."

All Held.

In the County Court last Tuesday afternoon, Ties Shelton, charged with the murder of Mrs. Wm. Pigg was held to the grand jury without bail and his wife Rebecca Shelton was released on the same charge. Mount Pigg, Brack Murrell and Dave Bolin were also released on their own recognizance on the charge of malicious shooting and wounding and Wm. Pigg and George Murrell were held under bond of $300, which was given. The case occupied almost the entire day and many witnesses on both sides were examined.

Give Space Here.

The local bill boards in Richmond, which are owned and operated by Manager Baxter, of the Grand Opera House, will shortly be covered with an immense display of attractive reading and illustrations in the interest of the fight against tuberculosis in this country. By an order from the National Organization, of which Manager Baxter is a member, all boards in the country will use this series of bills. It was donated by the National organization and will not doubt prove a great help in combating such this dreadful disease that has so much taken a hold on the human race in this country, especially in Kentucky.

Col. Willis

Crab Orchard Springs has been sold to Col. Joe B. Willis, who has managed it for many years, and John Robinson, a capitalist, of Mercer county.

This noted watering place and summer resort enjoys a national reputation, chiefly on account of the excellent management of Col. Willis and his charming wife for the past years. The purchase price was not given out. The springs were owned by a stock company and many offers have been turned down of late years by the owners. The new purchaser will spend a goodly sum in making some needed improvements and will modernize the hotels and grounds in many ways.

The friends of Col. and Mrs. Willis in Madison county are more than pleased to learn of the purchase. He is one of the most popular men who ever resided in Madison and made a great reputation as sheriff of this county. In the deal the Keeley rights are also purchased and Dr. Dick, the physician who has been in charge of this department, will remain. This will be good news to many who know the doctor. With the improvements that Col. Willis expects to be made on the hotels and grounds will be as beautiful and modern in every particular as it is possible to make them. Ma and Pa Willis, as they are known to their hundreds of friends, enjoy about as wide an acquaintance as any other two people in the county.

Squire Did It.

Squire Dykes tied the nuptial knot in the county clerk's office last Saturday between Andy Robinson and Flossie Smith. The young couple hail from the Berea neighborhood.

Model Wins.

The basket ball team of the Model school defeated the Caldwell High school team last Thursday by the score of 15 to 13. The teams are about evenly matched and there is much rivalry.

A Good One.

Manager Baxter has just closed a deal for "The Thief" to be presented at the Richmond opera house or next Monday evening the 10th. This is a powerful play and one which made the theatre going public of Chicago and New York demand its presence for a season at each place.

New Store.

Thomas Ledford has opened up a 5, 10 and 25 cent store in the building on Main street formerly occupied by Cut Rate Grocery No. 1 and will have a large stock of this class of merchandise. Mr. Ledford is so well known that he will no doubt command a good share of the public patronage.

Trying Job.

Auctioneering at the big Richmond loose leaf tobacco warehouses is about the toughest job yet, but Long Tom Cheneault and Jesse Cobb are developing into wonders. Even Mr. B. B. Million is getting onto the turns. Recently when his regular auctioneer was ill, he took hold of the situation and the buyers claim he performed wonderfully.

Sheriff McCord sold a handsome pair of mules last week to a dealer in Tazewell, Tenn., for $500. Mr. W. H. Parks and Mr. McCord attended the big Durac hog sale at Lexington last week. They are both fanciers of this breed.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that the county board of Election Commissioners will meet at the county clerk's office on Thursday February 2nd, at 10 a. m., to select the officers for the registration and election to be held Feb. 17th, and March 3rd, respectively as the Local option questions. All persons interested are notified to submit in writing lists of qualified persons to be appointed such officers.

All Invited.

One of the biggest mass meetings the growers of this county ever held will probably take place at the court house next Saturday. It is in the interest of the cut out plan, but an invitation is extended to every grower in the county, pooler, non-pooler, cut out or non-cut out. Everyone is expected and urged to be present. It is the most important subject that has been before the farmers in years. It is hoped that Mr. Ward Headley, of Princeton, will be here to make an address. All pledge books now in the hands of growers are expected to be turned in at this meeting.

Road Completed.

English & Co., lumber dealers, have just completed the building of a narrow gauge railroad, which runs from their lumber camp in Owsley county a distance of ten miles, connecting with the main road at the Ida May Coal mines in Lee county. Mr. Bert English, of Woodland Ave., this city is Manager of the concern. The company has enough timber to require five years in which to get the product to the markets and is one of the most valuable in the Kentucky mountains. The new road cost about $40,000 to complete. The largest portion of the timber will be used in making staves for whiskey barrels.

Of Interest Here.

The decision of Judge Benton in the Franklin circuit court where he holds that the purchasing of the F. & C. railroad by the L. & N. is not in restraint of trade, will be read with interest here and disappointment. The conditions at Frankfort and Paris, is the same in Richmond. Competition is the life of trade and a town without two or more competing railroads is seriously handicapped. Of course the L. & A. was a small road, but it was a competitor never-theless. The slow progressive movements of the Southern and C. N. O. & T. P., are mainly responsible. If either of these had acquired the L. & A. and F. & C. Richmond, Paris and Frankfort would be benefited wonderfully.

Beloved Priest.

Covington papers contain many notices of the celebration of his Silver Jubilee by Father Ryan, pastor of St. Anne church, West Covington, and who was formerly pastor of St. Mark's Catholic church here. The Priest will be remembered here by many outside of his congregation as a gentleman of the highest rank. The Silver Jubilee in the Catholic church is celebrated on the twenty-fifth anniversary of ordination to the priesthood. The ceremonies took place in the 24th of last month. Father Ryan was also pastor at Winchester for many years. He graduated from St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, in 1885, and was ordained priest on January 24th, 1890.

A Real Fan

"Do we want base ball this summer? This question must be answered one way or the other within the next two weeks. Last year was a disastrous one financially and the Association quit the season owing a good-sized sum of money. A large part of this is due the Richmond National Bank, and this institution has recently filed suit for its debt. This means that unless immediate action is taken to make satisfactory disposition of this debt the splendid park owned by the Association will be sold and cut up into lots.

A few men who are interested in base ball and, who consider the grounds worth a good sum above the debts have agreed to take up all debts and hold the park in a way to guarantee baseball, provided the public shows, by coming forth with a capable business man to run the team and enough money, $1,000.00 to $1200.00 to start the team going, that it wants baseball.

Only the people who stop to think it over realize what base ball means in the summer to a small town like Richmond. Can anybody remember what we did on hot summer afternoons before the town had the ball team? Did the people sit around and cuss the heat or did they light out for seashore, mountains or summer resort and there spend three times as much money for a two weeks outing that a whole season of real tip-top base ball costs?

If we had never had this comparatively economical form of amusement we might get along without it. But how, having gotten used to seeing these fine contests every day, can we ever get along without them? We can't. The collapse of the tobacco pool may have been a disaster but the passing of the base ball team would be an engulfing calamity. Things would be so dull around here that soon our population would be as small as the last census said it was—and that reminds us of Danville, Middleboro and Winchester and some of those other cheery towns. What would they say about it? "Richmond, that little old town that can't support a ball team. People there thought it was a fine thing until they lost a little money and then they howled like kids and quit." That's what they would say. It depends entirely upon whether or not a good man will come forward and agree to assume the burdens which have been borne in the past by Presidents Kelogg and Greenleaf, and whether or not the general public will subscribe enough money to start things going.

At a meeting of the League after the close of last season it was fully recognized by representatives from all the towns that expenses had become too high. That meeting resulted in an iron-clad rule which will keep all teams within the salary limit during the coming season, and with good weather, it may be reasonably expected that the coming season will show financial success for the Richmond team. Richmond is one of the best drawing towns in the League and there is no reason why we should not get together and save the ball team, our most heartful and entertaining medium of summer recreation. The present officers of the Association are now at work on the details of plans for re-organization which will be submitted to the public at a meeting to be announced later and which will be held within the next two weeks; and all persons in the county and city who are interested in the preservation of base ball are urged to make preparations to attend."

Trim Trees.

Judge Shackelford has taken in hand with an expert to have the shade trees in the court house yard trimmed in the most scientific manner. He will personally superintend the work and see that not even a single twig is unnecessarily cut off.

Bluegrass Leaguers.

Cather Angemier, late of Frankfort, pitcher Tony, ex-Hunter, of Winchester, are among the men named by Boss Charley Murphy of the Chicago Cubs, who will be taken to New Orleans for the spring training. Sixteen pitchers and four catchers are in the first list of Cubs who will go, and they will leave early in February.

An Old One.

Dr. W. G. White is still in possession of a revolving desk chair which his mother presented to him twenty-five years ago as a Christmas gift, and he prizes it about as much as anything he possesses. He claims that the new fashioned chairs of this kind are very uncomfortable and last week he sent for the old chair, which has been at his office in Louisville, and installed it at his desk in the Climax office.

Deaths.

The gunboat Wheeling, in command of Capt. Carlo B. Brittain, has arrived safely at her destination in Cuba, and the false rumors sent out that she was blown up at sea, cannot be accounted for by the war department.

On account of his wife and son being here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, all the more was felt in Richmond for the safety of his commander, Mr. Brittain, who has been quite sick, is recovering rapidly, and hopes to join his husband as soon as possible. She was Miss Mayme Baldwin before her marriage to Capt. Brittain.

The war department all along gave little stress to the rumors. The Annapolis Capital, published in the city where the naval academy is located, has the following in connection with a news item concerning the rumor of the vessel's being blown up: "The Captain of the Wheeling is Carlo B. Brittain, who was in command of the battleship Massachusetts, of the summer squadron at naval academy last year. Capt. Brittain was the first officer to bring a battleship into this harbor and turn her around, as he did the Massachusetts last June, a neutral fact that had been declared to be impossible in these waters." Mr. Baldwin telegraphed the war department to notify Capt. Brittain's family here of any developments. The gunboat landed safely at 11 o'clock Saturday morning and a telegram was received here from the department at San, thus showing how promptly Uncle Sam looks after matters of this sort.

High Honor

To Judge James Benton, By the Press and Bar of Frankfort.

Madison county shares in the high honor that has just been paid Judge J. M. Benton by the Press and bar of Frankfort, for he is a product of this county, and one of whom she is justly proud. Gov. Wilson, realizing the importance of the special session of the Franklin circuit court which was to be held the last two weeks in January, cast his eye around for circuit Judge who could interpret the law, and he very wisely selected Judge Benton.

The Frankfort Journal says: "Judge Benton, of Winchester, who presided as special judge at the January term of the Franklin Circuit Court, which closed yesterday, made a most remarkable record. The amount of business that he disposed of in less than four weeks was enormous and surprising; and the overloaded docket was greatly relieved. He is a conscientious man and an indefatigable worker. He is one of the best lawyers and judges in the state. His mind is always clear and absolutely impartial. He is quick without being hasty, resolute without the slightest touch of severity, and unfailingly impetuous and courteous."

During his stay here he won the admiration, even the affection, of all who came in contact with him, and all the members of the bar, the court, officials, jurors and litigants universally praise him. The banquet tendered him by the bar Thursday night was a splendid testimonial of the esteem in which he is held by those who know him here. He is, within, one of the most able, best equipped, and brightest of all the men who adorn the bench."

Good Shows.

The vaudeville program at the Grand Opera House has been exceptionally fine the past week. There has been one or two attractions that merited considerable attention. Ten had ones are overbooked when one real good one comes along.

Supervisors

Complete their Tedious Task. Will Have one Day's Session on the 11th.

The Board of County Supervisors adjourned last Friday after their arduous duties of examining several hundred property owners, and going over each name on lists of Madison county taxpayers. Many increases were made and several lists were cut down and the final recapitulation will not be known until the 11th, when the Board will have a one day meeting to ratify its work.

Mr. Wm. Hestley, a member of the Board and Deputy Assessor June Baxter are now going over the lists for the purpose of making the recapitulation. A very noticeable raise by the Board was in the assessment of the East Tennessee Telephone Co.'s property in this county. This corporation listed its property in Madison county at about $11,000, but the supervisors just doubled this amount. The company was notified to appear before the Board, but they failed to do so.

It is the opinion now that the increase in the total amount of taxable property will not be near as much as was expected.

Hit the Mule.

Leroy Estill, a harmless looking negro but from his actions it would seem he was a bad one when riled up, was before Judge Shackelford last Thursday morning on a charge of taking a shot at a fellow negro whom he claims had applied an unsavory name to him, the bullet missing its mark and striking a valuable mule belonging to James Neale. He was also charged with carrying concealed weapons. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge and received a fine of $100 and thirty days in jail for the shooting and a stiff fine for carrying concealed weapons. The animal was hit in the leg and it may render it practically useless. Estill shot at John Dillingham who is employed by Mr. Neale and who was in charge of a team of mules when the negro was shot. It is lucky that neither man escaped being killed.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health. The discharges not excessive or infrequent. Contains no "brick-dust like" sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick. Mrs. B. F. Walter, Hill street, Lancaster, Ky., says: "I never fail to praise Doan's Kidney Pills when I have the opportunity. I have never been without a supply of these pills in the house for years and whenever my back becomes lame and painful, a few doses always brings prompt relief. For some time I suffered from kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and from this I knew that my kidneys were disordered. At that time it was my good fortune to hear of Doan's Kidney Pills and through their use my kidneys were restored to a normal condition."

First Money for Pool.

About $800,000 from the proceeds of sales of the 1909 pooled tobacco was distributed among the growers in the different counties by the Burley Tobacco Society last Saturday.

This payment is estimated by the society officials to be about 20 percent of the amount tied up in the pool, and was the first money which has ever been received by the poolers from the crops which the consigned to the society in 1909.

Nearly the entire sum of about $800,000 was paid to Kentucky growers, and although it will be but a small part of the enormous amount so long tied up in the pool, it is in the aggregate a considerable sum, and is believed will give some relief to the financial situation in many localities, and that the $800,000 in cash will have perceptible influence on the business of the state. This $800,000 by no means represents the entire proceeds of the sales from the 1909 pool, up to date, and while the Burley Tobacco Society declines to state just how much of the pooled tobacco has been sold, or when another division of proceeds will be made, it is understood that a second distribution will be ordered before long.

Kentucky will have an extensive exhibit at the National Corn Show at Columbus, O., January 30 to February 11 through arrangements completed by the College of Agriculture of State University. Besides the exhibition of corn growing, the exhibit will also include the culture and manufacture of tobacco and hemp. The varied specimens have already been shipped to Columbus, to be put in shape for the opening of the show. The hemp exhibit will include a practical demonstration of its handling from sowing the seed through all of the processes of culture and manufacture to the finished products. The tobacco exhibit will be along the same lines, but special reference will be given to the plant breeding investigations, which are conducted by the Experiment Station here. Capt. Thomas F. Bryant, of the College of Agriculture, will install and take charge of the exhibit.

Winchester

Is Still to Have Just One "Wet" Precinct, Says Court of Appeals.

Concerning the local option situation in Winchester, which is probably the most unique in the country, the Democratic says:

Winchester presents the rather unique spectacle of liquor being legally sold in a small portion of its territory, while it is not allowed to be sold in the rest. Several years ago the local option law allowed a vote on the liquor question by precincts. There are five voting precincts in the city limits and several of them would vote dry if the question should be presented of having saloons in them, while one or more of them, for that reason the liquor advocates, a number of years ago secured a vote on the question in North Winchester and court house precincts. The vote won in the first precinct but lost out in the latter, and since that time saloon license has been granted and liquor legally sold in North Winchester precinct or "Georgetown" as it is called.

In 1909 an effort was made to vote whisky out of the city entirely, but contrary to the expectations of the temperance people the city went "wet" by a decided majority.

Some time after, Messrs. Brown and Proctor, the owners of the Brown Proctor Hotel, asked for license for a saloon in that building, on the ground that as the city as a whole had voted for saloons it was legal to establish saloons anywhere in the city. The license was refused and the matter was carried to the Circuit Court and from there to the Court of Appeals. The higher court on Friday affirmed the action of the lower court.

The Court of Appeals holds that the local option election of 1909, when the whole city went "wet" did not affect the precincts that went "dry" in the 1899 election when each precinct voted separately and that these "dry" precincts must vote separately on the liquor question before the result of 1899 can be changed.

Advice Concerning Stomach Troubles and How to Remedy Them.

Do not neglect indigestion which leads to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent doctor once said that ninety-five per cent of all the ills of the human body have their origin in a disordered stomach.

A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomachic disorder. Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Free Sample For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the puny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in its sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

A child should have two full and free movements of the bowels a day. This emptying of the bowels is very important, as with it comes a clear head, a lightness of step, good appetite and sound sleep. It is especially important to know what to give the child in the emergency of a constipated bowels. Cathartics are too strong and indigestible, and other purgatives are not only too strong, but the child refuses them because of their bad taste. Have you ever used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin? It is a liquid tonic that families have been using for generations of centuries. It is mild, pleasant-tasting and promptly effective. It is good for you as well as for the child, but there is nothing better for you than to have your child healthy. You will not have to force them to take it.

First of all, if you have not yet used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, you may give your child a free sample. You can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can get it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of other families are doing. The family of Mr. D. W. Spangler of Stratonsville, Pa., as well as that of Mr. A. Z. Johnson of Walnut Grove, Tenn., started with it in that way and now write that it is their family necessity next to food itself. If you are unfortunate enough to have a sickly child, one given in constipation and indigestion, you should send for a free sample of this remedy and send for Dr. Caldwell personally. He will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Reclaim your case in a letter and he will send you in detail. For the free sample simply send your child's address to a Post Office care, Stratonsville, Pa. For other requests, Dr. Caldwell, Stratonsville, Pa.
